

Neurodiversity and Substance Use

Thursday, September 21 - Catholic Leadership Centre, 576 Victoria Parade East Melbourne, Dining Rooms

9:00 - 9:30	Registration Tea and Coffee
9:30 - 9:45	Introductions and Acknowledgement of Country Elisa Buggy, CEO, Inner Melbourne Community Legal (IMCL), VAADA Board member
9:44 - 10:15	Autism, Substance Use and Addiction: working together towards a better understanding Dr Eddie Mullen, Director Of Medical Workforce Lead Psychiatrist, Hype Clinic, Dual Diagnosis Stream Substance Use Research Group
10:15 - 10:45	Working with People with ADHD and SUD Dr Dianne Grocott, MBBSS FRANCP Psychiatrist, Reflect Health
10:45 - 11:15	Morning Tea
11:15 - 11:45	Navigating the Service System - a lived experience perspective Mel Spencer OAM, CEO Different Journeys
11:45 - 12:15	'Why won't they treat me if I use drugs?' - the need for change. Dr Ed Ogden, Addiction Medicine Specialist, Swinburne University, GV Health and Austin Health
12:15 - 12:45	Exploring Autism, ADHD, and substance use disorder - a dynamic q&a session Facilitator: Geoff Bayldon, Senior Trainer and Practice Consultant, YSAS Dr Eddie Mullen, Dr Dianne Grocott, Mel Spencer OAM, Dr Ed Ogden
12:45 - 1:45	Lunch
1:45 - 3:15	Seen and Heard: A workshop on the Insights and perspective of treatment for ADHD and SUD. Timothy Ridgeway, Coach, Addaptive Coaching, AOD Clinician GV Health
3:15 - 3:30	Closing Remarks